Law order us helping

Summary:

As is known to all, we'll definitely lose something when we get something, for personal, it might be the bill of food, but for public, it turns to be taxes, which we have to pay to the government. Taxes are significant and it they ensure the public services, including cleaning the street, protecting individuals and property, building and maintaining schools, etc. Imagining that without taxes, all of these will gone. In detail, more than three quarters of the taxes are paid for our daily life, and the rest is for education, library, and so on. Therefore, law has forced us to pay the taxes and everyone is paying taxes from different aspects.

Summary:

Due to the increasing University costs, more & more students tend to take a part-time job to get a job easier, even some of them become their full-job after graduation for most of the jobs are belonging to their fields.

For instance, a bank offers a half-time based job which works 20 hours per week, a restaurant offers a job take fewer hours per week, and there're also family families looking for babysitters which only costs 4 hours per week. Even for outdoor works, there're gardening & landscaping jobs.

Nevertheless, if one is interested, they can go to the office with their C.V. to check the details & be ready to be contacted for an interview.
